Spelling– This week we will enter list 20 into our spelling books with our test on Friday. The test will also include a written narration of rule 13.

Math– We continue with chapter 12, Decimals. The TCA East fourth grade webpage has a chapter summary with an overview of this concept.

Writing– This week, students will begin our unit on poetry.

Reading– We continue reading Pollyanna by Eleanor H. Porter in literature class. Our read aloud book is Little Britches by Ralph Moody.

History– Students will read about the First Continental Congress and the Battles of Lexington and Concord while we highlight Paul Revere's famous ride.

Science– We are exploring Maps and World Mountains.

Grammar– In our Fix It! Grammar, we continue to identify and mark the parts of speech as we copy the story in our notebooks.

Poetry Monthly Recitation–

The March recitation is George Washington by Rosemary and Stephen Vincent Benet. Students will copy the poem at school to have a copy in their planner for memorization.

The TCA East 4th grade webpage has a summary of each of our math chapters to help parents understand how we teach the math concepts. Check it out here.

A love of learning has a lot to do with learning we are loved.

Rule 13
Sh is used at the beginning or end of a word or at the end of a syllable, but never at the beginning of a syllable after the first one. The exception is –ship as in friendship.
