

THE CAY

BY: THEODORE TAYLOR

"It was as if my blindness were protecting me from fear." p.114

1. Describe Philip's initial feelings toward Timothy when he could still see.
2. In your opinion, what is the greatest gift that Timothy gives to Philip, and what is the greatest gift that Philip gives to Timothy?
3. What is Philip able to see even though he is physically blind?
4. Philip says that his blindness protected him from his fears. What fears does Philip have to overcome throughout the novel?

5. Would you recommend this book to others? Explain your opinion.