Reading Over Break

As we all enjoy our time off from school, please remember to read with your child. This daily reading makes a huge difference with reading fluency! Take a trip to your local library to check out some just-right reading books to enjoy!

Happy Thanksgiving!

As we head home for Thanksgiving, take time with your family to count your blessings! There is so much we can be thankful for. Help your child spot the blessings that surround them every day! This attitude of gratitude will shape their heart to think positively and spread joy!

Math Tip

Time away from school is also an excellent time to show students how much math is part of our every day lives. Ask them to help you cook or bake, have them count or add up the number of things you might need to set the table. As always, please practice math facts during this time at home.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our classrooms already this year. Your food/supply donations, volunteer hours, and weekly commitment to helping your child complete homework, read, and succeed has not gone unnoticed. We couldn't do what we do without your support at home, so as we enter this holiday season, let us offer you a huge.....THANK YOU!
