

WEEKLY NEWS

August 18, 2023

HERE'S WHAT'S HAPPENING:

Welcome to 3rd Grade!

The Third Grade newsletter will usually look like this. Important information about upcoming events and assignments will be on this page each week. Please be sure to check the website each Friday for the updated newsletter.

Literacy Testing

Literacy testing is required for all students and will be by appointment on Thursday, August 24th and Friday, August 25th. If you have not signed up for a time yet, please speak with your child's teacher.

Back-to-School Night

Monday, August 21st
6-8pm

Please join us for this opportunity to hear from your classroom teacher about 3rd grade goals and expectations.

AM Dropoff

Please do not drop your student off before 7:45am. There is not supervision for your children until that time and children dropped off early will be waiting outside .

IN OUR CURRICULUM:

Spelling— We will not test over lists 1 & 2. Our first spelling test will be Sept. 2 over lists 3 & 4. You can find our spelling lists on Spelling City here.

Math— This week we will learn about place value and comparing numbers. Please help your child remember to return their math workbook to school EVERY DAY.

Writing— To help prepare us for writing, we will be looking at passages, creating key word outlines, and telling back.

Reading— We will begin reading Charlotte's Web.

Recitation — "For Want of a Nail"

Due the week of August 28th.

(A recitation schedule for the year has been posted on the 3rd grade website.)

History— We will be learning about geography and creating our own model globe.

Visit our third grade website for more!

Character Corner

Charlotte's Web is a book about the friendship of two very different individuals. Encourage your child to befriend someone who might be new or different this year.
