

Second Grade News

March 11th – March 15th

Dates to Note

- March 25-29: Spring Break
- April 12: Immigration Day

Notes

Please continue to be purposeful about having your child work on her/his spelling words each week. The words are getting more difficult! We very much appreciate the work you do at home as we partner to help our kids succeed.

Multiplication Facts

We are working on memorizing x1, x10, x2, x3, x4, and, x5, with a goal of mastery.

We love healthy Snacks!

History

In history this month we are learning about Civil Rights Leaders. We will discuss how these ordinary people made extraordinary changes for good. In the unit we will learn about the contributions of Susan B. Anthony, Mary McLeod Bethune, Eleanor Roosevelt, Jackie Robinson, Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King Jr. and Cesar Chavez.

March Poem

During the month of January, we will be learning about and memorizing limericks by Edward Lear, particularly, There Was an Old Man With a Beard.
