

Costume Ideas: Roman Day

IDEAS FOR ROMAN DRESS

Appendix G Roman Dress

Roman Gladiator

Comb hair forward if possible
If student feels too bare, put a solid T-shirt underneath

Shield front back

Sword

Card board
Ms. Rowden has paint

Cloth band on head

Very wide, baggy shift of white or solid color; should reach below knees (old sheets would do) belt with wide band, leather belt, etc.

Sandals with leather strips

Female Roman Slave

wear hair up, if possible

beads can be worn in hair wear flat sandals or flip-flops tie around body just below chest and blouse out let fabric drop and bag past the hips pull up high and tie off at waist very long, baggy shift in white or solid color (old sheets would do)

Roman Soldier

helmet can be made for large glass bottle

sword + shield + card board

sword

can help him make the armor at school; sword + shield can be painted at school tie at waist and blouse over knees is just above the knee very wide, baggy shift hemmed just below the knees; should be solid red, but white is ok (old sheets would do)

Male Slave

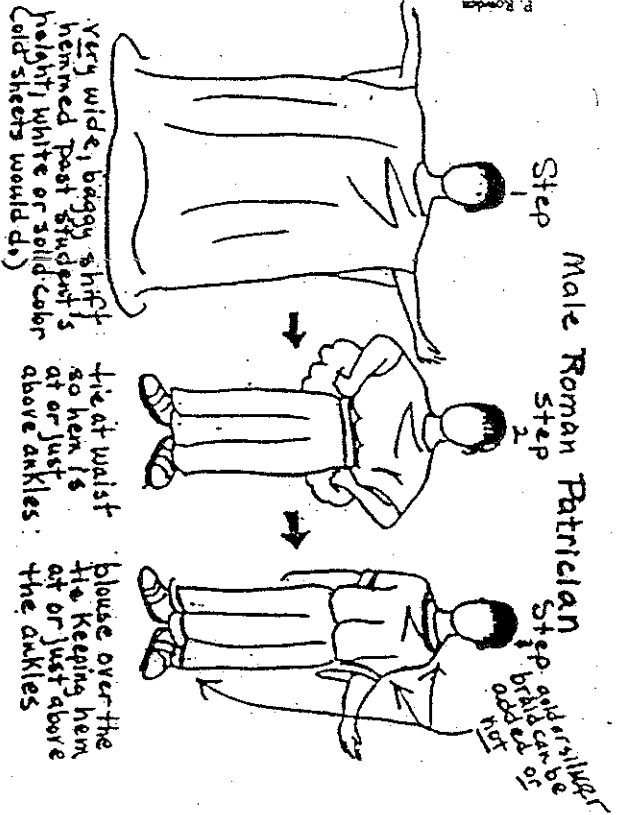

blouse over. Hemline is just above the knee tie at waist and blouse over very wide, baggy shift hemmed just below the knees. Old white sheet would do

P. Rowden
Oglethorpe Ave. ELEM
Athens, GA 30611 97

Male Roman Patrician

Female Roman Patrician (Suggestion)

Appendix G Roman Dress

Female Patrician Suggestion 2

