Eating Utensils

Please include a spoon or fork with your child's snack or lunch if needed. Thank you! (If you have any extra plastic utensils, we would be happy to take them off your hands.)

History

We are learning about the Constitution. In this unit, students are being introduced to the basic functions of the American government: that it is based on the Constitution, the highest law of our land. Students will see government by the consent of the governed: "We the People." They will also learn about James Madison, the "Father of the Constitution." To put their learning into practice, students will participate in Constitution Day on Friday, September 22nd, from 10:55-12:15. Dressing in attire appropriate for this era is encouraged (but not required) on this day.

September Poem

Bed in Summer

~Robert Louis Stevenson~

In winter, I get up at night
And dress by yellow candlelight.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree;
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Sayings for September

Don't cry over spilled milk
Don't judge a book by its cover
